If I have a list of patent document, is there a way to input it and have it download the document in PDF and OCR?

Currently we do not have a function to search for a patent number, as IPscreener focus on text mining and matching on a text input.