Do you have a case study (ie results of prior evaluations) you can share?

IPscreener was best-in-test in the study comparing the 7 major semantic AI tools on the market, done by the Austrian Patent Officet and presented September 2018. We will be happy to share those results with you if interested.